INTRODUCTION

Nothing could adequately describe the resplendent rock garden that is the Burren, with its abundance of exotic flora, bird and wildlife. Dotted with megalithic stone tombs, some representing the regions earliest monuments (from about 3,800 BC) including Poulnabrone Dolmen. There is an abundance of Christian and pre-Christian monuments, along with medieval settlements - castles, ring (fairy) forts, wishing wells and ancient churches spanning the centuries of time.

You will enjoy the stone forts, monuments, alpine and arctic flowers and plants that grow side by side, the seeds having been deposited by glacier millions of years ago. This is the mystical land of disappearing rivers and lakes, closed valleys, caves and limestone pavements. You may even find a real fairy fort!

The Aran Islands, three timeless islands in an endless sea showcase weathered monuments on awesome cliffs, great labyrinths of limestone, meandering walls, patchwork fields, quiet beaches and a welcoming island people.

For this rewarding bike trip, we have chosen a wonderful variety of quality, select accommodations that offer a blend of comfort, location and personal hospitality. You will enjoy the delights of stunning settings and vibrant culture.

Experience the Irish welcome: "Cead Mile Failte" (A Hundred Thousand Welcomes!) and small village life as you travel the winding roads of the West.

"Our trip was fabulous! You really know how to organize a tour for the greatest scenery and wonderful accommodations.the little lanes we spent the majority of our time on were so relaxing and fun to ride on. They also got us into the wilderness and I often felt we were a hundred miles from anywhere!"

A Celtic Journey: Guided Cycling Adventure

DETAILED ITINERARY: 7 Days / 6 Nights

Charming Inns, Private Hotels and Guesthouses.

Trip Highlights:

- Towering Cliffs of Moher
- Falcon and Hawks Flying
- Island Safari – the Aran Islands
- Ring Forts and 4,500 year old Dolmans

Day One: Your Adventure Begins!

Meeting point at your tour start point in the village of Kinvara. The journey will take about 45 minutes to one hour depending on traffic from Galway City. Spend the afternoon exploring Dunguaire Castle and strolling by the village harbour. Learn about the 'Galway Hooker', a local fishing boat used by local fishermen for more than a century. Late afternoon bike fit out, slideshow and briefing. Overnight at the Merriman Inn Hotel.

Day Two: Kinvara to Corofin

You begin today's biking with a warm up ride through winding country roads and farmland to Kilmacduagh Monastic site, where present day church buildings and round tower date back to the 13th and 14th centuries. See one of Ireland's last remaining ancient Round Towers, an 111 ft tall leaning tower. You cycle onward to a picnic site where you may have lunch. This is a unique area steeped in ancient history and dotted with ancient archaeological sites, which you take time to explore. Onward to the village of Corofin, where you overnight at Corofin Country House.

Day Three: Corofin to Ballyvaughan

You cycle onward through the heart of the remarkable Burren hills to our lunchtime stop at Kilfenora. You visit the Burren Interpretative Centre and the ancient Kilfenora Cathedral. This is a unique area steeped in ancient history and dotted with ancient archaeological sites, which you take time to explore. A short trip to the Caherconnell Ring Fort followed by the ancient 4500 year old Poul nabrone portal dolmen. A downhill ride to Ballyvaughn – a lovely seaside village overlooking Galway Bay.

Overnight at Drumcreehy Guesthouse in Ballyvaughan.

Day Four: Ballyvaughan to Doolin

Today's biking is a leisurely ride along one of the most scenic coastal routes. The flaggy shoreline, Fanore Beach and Blackhead Lighthouse are amongst just some of the points of interest you view along the route today. The village of Doolin is a Mecca for traditional music, designer crafts and Irish seafood. Evening of traditional Irish music where the less fainthearted can join in and sing or dance should you so desire!

Overnight at Ballyvara Guesthouse in Doolin

Day Five: Doolin Loop

This morning, you continue en route to the towering 700 ft. high Cliffs of Moher. From here, it is a downhill ride past Doonagore castle to the pretty fishing village of Doolin, home to one of the finest craft shops in the West of Ireland. You go deep underground to visit Doolin Cave – this rustic cavern is impressive in that it holds the second largest stalactite in the world!

Overnight at Ballyvara Guesthouse in the heart of Doolin.

Day Six: Doolin to Aran Islands (8 Miles on islands plus ferry)

Step back in time and enjoy the traditional and cultural flavours the islands have to offer. Early morning ferry ride to the Aran Islands from Doolin to the Island of Inishmore, the largest of the Aran Islands. Witness the tranquility, the whitewashed cottages and the intricate network of stone walls built by generations of island inhabitants. The island offers several ancient sites to visit, including the hilltop fort, Dun Aengus, one of Europe's oldest forts.

Overnight at the Herons Rest in the historical quarter of Galway City.

Day Seven: Departure

Sadly we must bid you farewell. Transfer by rail or coach to Dublin.

We highly recommend spending some additional time to explore the city of Galway. The heart of Galway City is an intertwining of small winding streets, Quay Street and High Street; the city's 'left bank' area is perennially popular and full of character. Nearby is the medieval Spanish Arch and O'Brien's bridge leading out of town to the Salthill Promenade, a walk with stunning view of Galway Bay. Perhaps an additional overnight before departing this charming town?
